

Iceland Winter Pack List - Guests

Iceland is a very modern country and you can buy anything you might need there. What is listed below will fit into a carryon bag. Do not bring too much stuff. There is a lot of great shopping for clothes, outdoor gear, Icelandic wool and other items on this trip. Leave room in your luggage for things you will buy. This is just a list of basic suggestions and reminders.

Special note: Do not bring a hairdryer with an American electrical plug. Please see the FAQ sheet with info about hairdryers.

- Alarm clock
- Binoculars
- Boarding passes and airline booking confirmation
- Calculator for exchange rate
- Camera and charger
- Cash
- Daily medication
- Debit and credit cards (tell banks about leaving the country)
- Dramamine (Meclizine prescription if you are very sensitive to motion)
- Driver's license (for a secondary ID in case you lose your passport)
- Electrical adaptor (same as northern Europe, but not England)
- Emergency kit
- Eye mask, ear plugs and neck rest for on airplane
- Fleece or sweater (winter weight)
- Fly weight daypack (for walking around town and day excursions)
- Gloves and Mitts for over gloves (mittens are warmer than gloves)
- Hairbrush/comb
- Hat for warmth
- Hiking boots that are warm or snow boots which are good for walking
- Hiking poles
- Log book
- Long sleeve warm shirt – 2
- Long underwear, like Smartwool top and bottoms that can be worn under your clothes
- Neck Gaiter or scarf
- Pants – 2 pairs
- Passport and copies (give copy to traveling partner in case you lose your passport)
- Phone and charger (only international plans will work, call you phone carrier)
- Rain/wind jacket and pants for an outer layer
- Reading glasses
- Shampoo and conditioner
- Shaving kit
- Sleeping clothes or cozy clothes for hanging out at the B&Bs
- Snack and food for on airplane if you bought an economy class seat
- Socks – 3 pairs
- Stabilicers or Yaktrax
- Sunglasses
- Sunscreen and lip balm
- Swimsuit and swim cap
- Toothbrush, toothpaste and dental floss
- Underwear – 2 pairs
- Watch
- Winter boot gaiters